

Mr. Robert Smothers is the Chief of Logistics and Installation Systems Branch at Maxwell AFB-Gunter Annex, a position he has held since 2007. He has more than 36 years of experience in logistics, communications, and defense acquisition in private industry, active military duty service, and government civil service. He entered the Air Force upon graduation from high school in 1975, and held enlisted ranks from Airman to Technical Sergeant. He completed Officer's Training School in 1984 and served in various assignments in maintenance and logistics, including a tour as Squadron Commander for Logistics and Maintenance, Kunsan AB, Korea. He retired in 1997 at the rank of Major, while assigned as the Headquarters, Air Combat Command, Chief of Combat Readiness.

Within government civil service, Mr. Smothers has worked many years in logistics and transportation systems, operations systems, contracting, and force capabilities systems. He has been the Program Manager for several systems including NETCENTS II, the Logistics Module, and the Global Force Management System.

Mr. Smothers is a graduate Charleston Southern University and has an MBA from Troy University.