Deloitte is the largest professional services firm in the world, with over 180,000 employees in 140 countries, serving private and public sectors in technology, strategy and operations, human capital, risk management, tax, financial advisory, and audit. Serving more than 80 percent of the world's largest companies, across 20 industry sectors, we have reach back to leading practices of the private sector to help the DoD tackle an increasingly complex, performance driven environment. We are committed to working together with the DoD to solve its most difficult challenges in an affordable, innovative, and value driven way.
